The Library of Parliament is a non-partisan organization providing stimulating and rewarding work. We recognize that our employees are our most important asset and, as such, we offer excellent benefits, four weeks’ vacation leave, learning opportunities to support professional and career development, competitive salaries, and more!

Our Parliamentary Information and Research Service (PIRS) provides high-quality, substantive and timely information, research and analysis to parliamentary committees, individual senators and members of the House of Commons, and parliamentary associations/delegations.

We are currently looking for candidates to staff the position of Analyst in the Environment, Fisheries and Agriculture Section.

Indigenous candidates are invited to self-identify in their application.

Analyst
Environment, Fisheries and Agriculture Section
Parliamentary Information and Research Service
Indeterminate Position
AN-01 – AN-03 ($62,473 - $108,446)
(Bilingual staffing – non-imperative: CBC/CBC)

Our ideal candidates demonstrate the competencies listed in the Research, Analysis and Library Specialists Group (sub-Group C).

For the purposes of this selection process, the following knowledge criteria will be evaluated:

- Knowledge of the Parliament of Canada, the federal government and related current issues
- Knowledge of federal policies and programs with respect to the aquatic environment and resources

To be considered, candidates must have:

- A Master’s degree in a discipline related to the position OR a Master of Laws degree OR membership in good standing in a provincial or territorial law society OR an undergraduate degree in a field related to the position combined with a Juris Doctor (J.D.)
- Experience in conducting research on and analysis of policy issues related to the Section’s areas of specialization

Assets:

- Knowledge of environmental issues affecting Indigenous communities or the Arctic and Northern communities
- Knowledge of the issues related to Indigenous fisheries and aquatic resource management programs
- Ability to incorporate visual elements (such as infographics, GIS maps, charts, tables, etc.) into research reports

Candidates retained in this selection process will be required to obtain:

- A successful second-language evaluation (Bilingual staffing – non-imperative: CBC/CBC)
- A successful pre-employment screening

Additional Information:

- This selection process is open to the public and to employees of the Library of Parliament, the Senate, the House of Commons, the Office of the Senate Ethics Officer, the Office of the Conflict of Interest and Ethics Commissioner, the Parliamentary Protective Service, and the Office of the Parliamentary Budget Officer.
- This selection process will include a second-language evaluation, a written qualifying exam, an interview and a post-interview written exam. The interview will consist of behavioural, situational and knowledge-based questions. Candidates will be required to pass each stage in order to move to the next stage of the selection process.
- Qualified candidates from this selection process may be considered for determinate or indeterminate positions at the Library of Parliament that require similar knowledge and/or competencies.
- Education and experience requirements will be used to determine which candidates will be asked to participate in the next stage of the selection process.
- Satisfactory references and proof of education are essential conditions of appointment.
- Travel and relocation expenses are the responsibility of the candidates.
The Library of Parliament is committed to employment equity.
Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and to permanent residents who are legally able to work in Canada. Applicants who have a valid work permit may also be considered.

Apply no later than 10 June 2018 – 11:59 p.m. (Eastern Time).
